

EDUCAUSE Learning Initiative Annual Session Proposal Submission Form

Thank you for your interest in the ELI 2012 Annual Meeting. Please take some time to read the EDUCAUSE Learning Initiative Annual Meeting Call for Proposals that explains the information you will be asked to provide when filling out this form. After reading the call for proposals document, if you still have questions about submitting a proposal, please contact either Malcolm Brown or Veronica Diaz.

Please use this form to submit a proposal for

- a preconference seminar
- an interactive presentation
- an innovation showcase presentation
- a poster session

Before Filling Out This Form

It is important to create or update your EDUCAUSE profile. If this is the first time you are completing your profile, please provide a minimum 100-word bio and link to professional URL (this could be a personal web page or your unit/department web page). Note: It may take up to 72 hours to generate new profiles or update existing ones. This will not affect your ability to continue with this submission process. However, remember that your profile information will be helpful to reviewers to understand your qualifications.

Please visit the Speaker Resources Hub to review tips for improving your conference proposal and greatly increase your chances of acceptance.

ELI Annual Meeting Terms and Conditions

Please take some time to review the Annual Meeting Terms and Conditions in the EDUCAUSE Learning Initiative Annual Meeting Call for Proposals for more information.

Before submitting your proposal, you must also acknowledge your acceptance of the ELI Publishing Permission Agreement by selecting the checkbox at the bottom of this page.

Important Dates

To be considered, all proposals must be received by September 7. Applicants will be notified of presentation proposal status during the week of October 10.
